BDA's Scottish Deaf Association Management Committee

The Jock Young Memorial Award

This Award was created to remember the good work Jock Young has done for the BDA and also in his heart he was always having concerns about the future of young people. The award plate is an annual one which has to be returned to SDA every year before the AGM takes place so that it is there to be handed over to the next achiever. Age to gain the award is 17-25.
